WINES OF THE MONTH

Albariño | Baladiña Rias Baixas

White-fruit aromas are generic up front, and the palate feels good but typical. Flavors of peach and apricot are chunky and turn a touch bitter on the finish.

$16 6oz. | $24 9oz.
$62 per bottle

Mourvèdre Contra Costa

Fresh and dried violets, roses, orchids lead the aromas, followed by red vibrant fruits of raspberry, red currant, rhubarb, cranberry and red plum with hints cacao, charred oak wood and a dried forest floor, complete with leaf litter. On the palate find chalky tannins, well-integrated alcohol and a vibrant acidity that keeps the fruits forward from start to finish.

$14 6oz. | $21 9oz.
$48 per bottle
